1. I have given you this meeting, I have given you this meeting this morning that I may come forth and that I may be seen in all My glory, all My glory, all My glory in all My people.
2. I come and I call and I conquer all forces that have sought to withstand Me and My people now arise in glory and splendor and majesty; and you will see and you will stand amazed, you who read this, at My words coming true and the truth of My words being made flesh, flesh before your very eyes. And the greater your doubt, the greater the conquering forces will be made explicit to you before your eyes so that you will know you could have been a part of My conquering forces, explicit in Me—I Am.
3. I love you and My meetings now come forth from Me regularly to explicitly declare and display My glory in designs of only Me coming forth, coming forth in architectural renderings as well as My word, the word of My flesh, the flesh of My body, the flesh of My word altogether one. I love you.
4. Now empowered be to see Me and feel and know that you are Me—I Am. I love you and I am. I Am comes now this day to be in My meeting, My meetings, My resurrection life, My power, My resurrection power, My life, My light, My river flowing, light of life, river of life, flow of life, the only life, the life of Me from My throne, from My words, from My heart, from My veins, My blood, My Cross, into you; you this day who will receive Me and receive My blood, drink My blood, live Me, be Me.
5. How often can I say it? How many ways will I say it? I will say it many ways many days henceforth multitudinous unlimited mannerisms of only Me, in multitudes of variations and plans and fashions of only Me. I love you.
6. Receive Me in My fullness this day. Receive My days and My wards. (chuckle) Hershey kisses I provide. I love you. (laughter) I am Me and I smile and I love you to smile and I love to make you smile. I love your joy and laughter and joy and laughter I do more bring to My body freedom'd in Me, relinquishing the burdens never made to carry; never designed to carry. Never made to carry that which was placed on them by constricting controllers whose greed sought only the labor of others for their own ends. I love you.
7. Commerce changes—commerce comes into play, into serious play for Me now—Me coming forth, My values, My freedom'd ones creating, creating Me, mosaics mainly of Me, mosaics all of Me, mainly concentric'd around My knee. I love you.
8. I come forth in might and glory and exchange of power, for power I have given and power I now receive for the power that I give, that I give in exchange for the power I receive and the power I receive that I give. I exchange and operate in polarity of only Me, concentric circles and elliptical forces of only Me. I love you.

9. Think not that they have split the atom, for I have split My atom (laughter). And I now split Me throughout My Priesthood of Believers, all coming in My New Covenant empowering them in the foresight of only Me, receiving Me, the words of My mouth coming through the words of their mouth. I love you.

10. Empowered be, speak Me, I am with you. I am with you always, lo, even to the end of the world and then I am with you for Me—time and eternity no longer registering, simply enjoying My presence and operating in the fullness of My creativity as I fully designed fully. I love you.

11. Be Me and enjoy Me in My meetings this day.

12. Thank you for hiring, for coming forth, delegating, and letting be Me, letting Me be Me in every one of My Mine. I will love, I will kiss, and I will destroy not.

13. I will arise and I will be Me fully in My New Covenant, in My Priesthood of all Believers.

14. Thank you and have a great day knowing I am beside you, I am with you, I am in your mouth, I in Me, I am you, we are one. Thank you very much.
